

	_____ for hazardous chemicals and machinery Inform all personnel of the proper USF Incident Reporting Procedures
Work with:	Contact EH&S to help set up your inventory in Chematix Request waste supplies and disposal of chemical waste and unwanted chemicals using Chematix Establish a Satellite Accumulation Area for hazardous waste storage Check with your department for instructions on ordering chemicals Ensure that personnel have access to Safety Data Sheets (SDS) Ensure appropriate chemical storage Label all containers with the complete name of the chemical Inform personnel of the locations of the fire extinguisher, first aid kit, spill kit, eyewash, and shower Make sure safety equipment (fume hood, eyewash, shower) is maintained Ensure that personnel have completed all applicable biosafety trainings as required by Research, Integrity, & Compliance (RIC) Register work with recombinant DNA, infectious or select AgOs
	... Ensure all individuals have completed Laser Safety training as required by the LSO Read and comply with requirements in USF Laser Safety Program Obtain necessary safety equipment, signage, and PPE for required operations Report incidents to the USF LSO Contact the USF LSO at 813-974-5638 for more information
Work with:	Submit an application for authorization to use radioactive material to the USF Radiation Safety Office (RSO) Ensure that personnel have completed Radiation Safety training and/or Research Safety X-Ray Fundamentals as required by the RSO Obtain necessary safety equipment, signage, and PPE for required operations Read and comply with requirements outlined in the USF Radiation Safety User Manual and/or the USF X-Ray Safety Manual Contact the USF RSO at 813-974-5638 for more information
Work with:	Before working with animals, contact the USF IACUC at 813-974-5638 for more information
Work with:	