USF to Participate in National Campus Safety Awareness Event

Live demonstrations and a wide variety of safety education opportunities will be offered to students, staff and faculty

TAMPA, Fla. (Sept. 26, 2016) – The University of South Florida Police Department and USF Emergency Management will hold their first-ever National Campus Safety Day event from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 28. Designed to provide an opportunity to collectively educate students, faculty and staff on overall safety, disaster preparedness and crime prevention, similar events occur on college campuses around the country throughout September as part of National Campus Safety Awareness Month (NCSAM).

A number of live safety demonstrations are planned, including an impaired driving simulation, a motor vehicle crash rollover simulation and a small fire demonstration. Tampa Police officers will be on hand to show how the department utilizes motorcycles, K-9s, horses and specialty bomb detection technology to keep the community safe. Officers providing
