

— 2021 Speaker Series on Race & Counseling —

How Biases Affect Racism

William E. Hudson, SR, PhD, CRC, CHS
University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Abstract: This presentation will explore the ways in which biases affect racism. It will discuss the role of implicit bias, stereotype threat, and microaggressions in the perpetuation of racism. It will also discuss the ways in which these biases can be identified and addressed in the counseling profession.

About William E. Hudson, SR, PhD, CRC, CHS

William E. Hudson, SR, PhD, CRC, CHS is an Associate Professor and the Director of the Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is also the Executive Director of the Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity. He has a PhD in Counseling Psychology from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is a member of the American Counseling Association, the American Psychological Association, and the National Association of Public Child Welfare Administrators. He has published numerous articles and books on race and ethnicity in counseling. He is currently working on a book titled "Race and Ethnicity in Counseling: A Practical Guide for Counselors".

March 23, 2021

12:00 PM