

Questions: If you have any questions regarding the wage increase or bonus, please contact the Central Human Resources Office or your campus HR office.

The increases for eligible employees funded by non-E&G sources (e.g., contracts and grants or auxiliary) are expected to be funded from those sources, provided that such funds are allowable and available in

Funding of Wage Increase their FTE.

Non-Eligible Employee Groups

Proration. Eligible employees appointed to less than full time will receive a prorated amount based on evaluation of record;

They do not have an open Performance Improvement Plan.

They do not have an open Performance Improvement Plan.

They were employed with the University as of July 1, 2020, and continuously employed in an • established position;

One-time Bonus

They are active employees on October 15, 2021, the date the base increase becomes effective; • on their evaluation of record;

University of South Florida AFSCME Wage Adjustment and Bonus Effective October 15, 2021

The University will provide a one percent (1%) increase, effective October 15, 2021 (to be included in the paycheck dated November 5, 2021) to the base wages for all eligible employees covered by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) collective bargaining agreement who meet the following criteria:

- The University will provide a one-time bonus of one percent (1%) of the eligible employees covered by the AFSOME collective bargaining agreement who meet the following
 - on their

for all

VED VERS I (1. or == STOLLTHEFLORID

Wage Adjustment

criteria:

•