

Research Initiative Accounts (RIAs) of Departed Faculty/Staff

General University Policy

Faculty and staff who leave the University for other positions, retire, or leave their position for other reasons will leave any funds remaining in RIAs for which they are responsible within the University. The funds may not be transferred to another investigator but rather will become the property of the Dean to use as needed to further research within the College, according to the

---

History: Presented to the Research Advisory Board at a meeting on November 28, 2011; document updated on January 24, 2012, to reflect revisions suggested at the meeting on November 28, 2011. Approved for posting on OR&I website January 24, 2012, by Dr. Karen A. Holbrook, Senior Vice President for Research, Innovation & Global Affairs. Posting prepared by Rhonda Hendrix.